ORDER

MA No. 199/CTB/2019, has been filed by the Operational Creditor praying for termination of the CIR process which was initiated on 19.11.2019 on admission of their petition. Mr. Umesh Chandra Sahoo appeared on behalf of the Operational Creditor before this Adjudicating Authority today. The Operational Creditor had already received the entire amount as per their claim. Hence, they seek permission of the Adjudicating Authority to withdraw the application filed by Operational Creditor. The IRP appointed by the Adjudicating Authority is not present before this Adjudicating Authority. The Operational Creditor submits that no COC has been constituted. The Operational Creditor shall settle the dues to the IRP, if any. Reliance is placed on the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the matter of 'Swiss Ribbons Pvt. Ltd. & Anr. Vs. Union of India & Ors.', W.P.(C) 99/2018. The CIR process can be terminated prior to the constitution of the COC on a compromise being effected between the parties. In view of the facts, the parties herein are entitled to seek termination of the CIR Process. Accordingly, the CIR process stands terminated.

The Corporate Debtor is released from the rigours of the moratorium and is permitted to function through its own board.

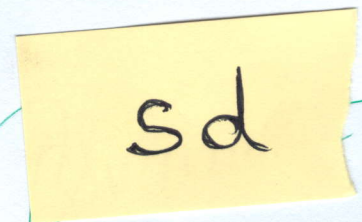

The Operational Creditor has undertaken to reimburse the IRP's expenses and professional fees within two weeks from today. In view of the same, MA No. 199/CTB/2019 stands disposed off.

The next date of hearing fixed in this case is hereby cancelled.

Accordingly, CP (IB) No. 105/CTB/2019 is disposed off.
